

MIKE MARDY
Alan T Brown Foundation
2017 Guest of Honor

Most recently, Michael (Mike) Mardy was the Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Board Director of Tumi Holdings (NYSE:TUMI), a retailer of prestige luggage and travel accessories. Mike led Tumi's IPO process in April 2012 and Tumi was sold to Samsonite in August 2016.

Currently, Mike is a member of the Board of Directors of David's Tea (NASDAQ:DTEA) where he serves as Audit Committee Chair and Governance Chair. He has also served on the Board of Directors of Green Mountain Coffee Roasters (NASDAQ: GMCR) where he served as Audit Committee Chair and a member of the Compensation Committee. He had previously served as Interim Chairman of the Board at GMCR. Mike has also served on the Board of Directors of Modus Link Global Solutions (NASDAQ: MLNK) where he was Audit Committee Chair and served on the Compensation and Governance Committees. He also serves as Board Member for the Eden Institute for Autism based in Princeton, NJ and is a former Board Member of the Institute of Medicine and Public Health for New Jersey. Mike has been on the NYSE Advisory Board and is a Trustee of the New Jersey chapter of the Financial Executives Institute.

Prior to joining Tumi in July of 2003, Mike was Executive Vice President and CFO of Keystone Foods LLC, a global manufacturer and distributor of food products and supplier to the quick service restaurant industry. From 1980 to 1996, Mike held various senior level positions with Nabisco, Inc., last serving as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Nabisco Biscuit Company, the leading U.S. cookie and cracker manufacturer. Earlier, he also served as Corporate Controller of Nabisco Brands the parent holding company.

Mike was named CFO of the Year in 2012 (Best Growth Manager) by NJBIZ Magazine and one of 2015's top 100 directors by the National Association of Corporate Directors. He has extensive experience in Board governance, regulatory matters, mergers and acquisitions, and audit and compensation issues. During his 25 years of board work, he has developed expertise in a wide range of corporate governance, regulatory, and securities law matters.

Mike holds a BA from Princeton University and an MBA from Rutgers University. He started his business career with the international CPA firm of Coopers and Lybrand (now PwC). He is a CPA in the state of New Jersey and holds the Certified Global Management Accountant Certification. He is a member of the Financial Executives Institute, the National Association of Corporate Directors, The American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Mike resides in Princeton, NJ with his wife Karen and has two adult children.